From the Editor

Description

I hope that you enjoy this Issue of the VLTA Examiner with the focus on Cyber Security in the Title Industry. The line-up of articles includes: an article by Melissa Ellis on The Importance of Cybersecurity for Small Businesses; an article by Eugene McCullough entitled Whatcha Gonna Do When A Data Breach Happens to You?; an article by Eric Nesheim as Part II: A Visit From the FBI from our Tales From The Table Column. Also of special interest is the article by Deirdre Vo on Multicultural Settlements. Be sure to check out the newest article by TUTE He Was A Legend In His Own Mind from our Title Tips by TUTE Column. I hope you enjoy the VLTA Convention spread from our trip to Landsdowne Resort & Spa, much fun was had by all!

I want to give a big Thank You to all our advertisers and contributors for their many contributions. I especially want to thank our Examiner Editorial Board members for their dedication and hard work. If you enjoy writing and have a topic of interest, we want to hear from you! Send in your ideas and articles to vlta@vlta.org.

VLTA Examiner

I know that we are all very busy in our business endeavors, but I hope that you will take some time to think about joining a VLTA Committee and share your time and talents. Volunteer with the VLTA, it really is a wonderful opportunity to see old friends, network and meet new business professionals and share in the wide range of interesting opportunities. After allâ?¦

> It is not enough to be busy. So are the Ants.
> The question is: What are we busy about?
