

PRIA Scholarship 2018

Description

Would a Title Professional You Know Benefit from PRIA Membership?

The Property Records Industry Association, through the generosity of a grant from Ernst Publishing, offers the opportunity for a one-year scholarship which includes membership in PRIA, along with registration (travel and hotel included) for one PRIA conference (annual 2018 or winter 2019). You, or one of your colleagues, government or business, could be the beneficiary of this annual scholarship.

Each scholarship recipient will be selected by a committee, based on outstanding contributions to the property records industry, and will be deemed eligible in one or more of the following ways:

- Is not currently a PRIA Member.
- Has demonstrated exceptional accomplishments in his/her chosen field.
- Has demonstrated exceptional service in local, state and/or national affairs.
- Has demonstrated exceptional service consistent with the mission and values of PRIA.

This award is valued at $2,000.

Click here for an application form and then forward that application to one, or more, of your colleagues that meet the award criteria. Or you can complete the application for yourself and submit to coordinator@pria.us.

But hurry! Application submission deadline is June 15.

Category

1. In the News

Date Created

2018/05/07

Author

vltaexaminer