

VLTA Convention hits record numbers

Have you registered for the VLTA 2018 Annual Convention? If you're planning to attend, please register right away - we're selling out! This year's Convention is boasting record registrations, and we only have so much space. The room block has SOLD OUT and only 50 seats are left in the education room. Based on current registrations, we expect a 20% higher attendance than our most successful year in the history of the Association!
