

Clerksâ?? Association Message

Description

Message from the Virginia Court Clerksâ?? Association (VCCA):

The VCCA just recently held its annual convention in August where the 2021-2022 Officers were installed. This yearâ??s President is Kristen Nelson from York County-Poquoson Circuit Court. Kristen has been worked in the Clerkâ??s Office for 25 years and has been Clerk since 2014. This past year VLTA and VCCA held quarterly meetings to discuss challenges from both associations in effort to promote efficiency and best practices as it relates to title searches and recordation processes across the state. The VCCA looks forward to continuing this collaboration for the betterment of our communities and offices.

Kristen Nelson

Kristen Nelson began her career in the York County-Poquoson Circuit Court Clerkâ??s Office in 1996 and was elected into office on November 3, 2015. She is an active member of the Virginia Court Clerksâ?? Association (VCCA), which includes all 120 of the Circuit Court Clerks in Virginia, and serves on several committees to include the Legislative, Technology, Education, Career Development, and Public Relations committees. Just recently, Kristen was sworn in as the Virginia Court Clerksâ?? Association President and will serve in that capacity for the next year.
