Description

VLTA 2026 Advocacy Day & Legislative Reception

January 20â??21, 2026 | Richmond, Virginia

Make your voice heard at the Capitol! Join the Virginia Land Title Association for our annual Advocacy Day, a cornerstone event where VLTA members come together to champion the issues that shape our industry and protect property rights across the Commonwealth.

VLTA Advocacy Day is an impactful, collaborative, and empowering event where Virginiaâ??s title professionals unite to engage directly with legislators, advocate for industry priorities, and strengthen the voice of the land title community.

Legislative Reception (Optional) â?? Tuesday, January 20th | 5:00 PM
Richmond Omni Hotel | $25 per person

Kick off Advocacy Day the night before by connecting with colleagues, partners, and legislative officials in a relaxed and engaging setting.

This reception is a great opportunity to network ahead of your time at the General Assembly and to prepare for the discussions ahead. While optional, VLTA strongly encourages attendees to participate.

Access Matters: Using Surveys to Identify and Resolve Access Issues in Real Property

Instructors: Kay Creasman, Julie Ann Rutledge, Toula Dreifuss
Three (3)-Hours CE/CLE Pending

This class will address access issues affecting both residential and commercial properties. After covering foundational access concepts, participants will review examples of common access problems, learn how to identify them through surveys and title documents, and discuss strategies for resolution. The focus is on recognizing access concerns early to reduce risk and transaction delays, as well as a detailed discussion on how to use information presented in a survey plat.

Please note that the same education program will be presented at both locations, allowing you to choose the option that best fits your schedule and region.
