SARAH LOUPPE PETCHER (1-HOUR CE; CLE PENDING)

Real Estate Closings in a Post NAR Settlement World

This workshop aims to equip real estate settlement professionals with the knowledge and skills necessary to successfully navigate handling agent compensation in the post-NAR Settlement world. It covers the latest NAR Settlement updates, best practices for settlement agents, and effective strategies to handle the inevitable settlement compensation headaches.

KEVIN POGODA (1-HOUR CE & CLE Approved)

Advocating for Title Insurance: From Congress to the Closing Table

Itâ??s time to talk title! This presentation gives a brief overview of the Pilot Title Acceptance program and attorney opinion letters, both of which allow a lender to dispense with the usual requirement of title insurance. The remaining portion of the presentation will focus on how to market an ownerâ??s title insurance policy, which is much more than rehearsing coverages found in the policy or presenting the consumer with a glossy brochure. Instead, this presentation will focus on the fundamentals of persuasionâ??recognizing the objections that a consumer has to title insurance and presenting the benefits thereof in a way that overcomes those objections.

MARILYN CUNNINGHAM (1-HOUR CE; CLE PENDING)

FinCEN Understanding the Residential Real Estate Reporting Rule

This comprehensive course offers an in-depth exploration of the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN), including a brief overview of its mission and the existing Geographic Targeting Orders (GTOs). The primary focus will be on the forthcoming Residential Real Estate Reporting Rule, set to take effect on December 1, 2025.

TOULA DREIFUSS (1-HOUR CE; CLE PENDING)

Transactions with a Twist: A Practical Guide for Settlement Professionals

This presentation aims to equip real estate settlement professionals with the knowledge and skills necessary to successfully navigate transactions involving out-of-the-ordinary details to include powers of attorney, entities, estates and fiduciaries and a variety of other non-standard specifics. The materials include information on what documents to request and review, what questions to ask of the involved parties, and special underwriting requirements related to the issuance of title insurance.

JEN SKRABAK (1-HOUR CE & CLE PENDING)

Every Penny Countsâ?¦Or Escrow Gone Wild

Every penny needs to be accounted for â?? in each process â?? or your escrow (or trust) account can go wild. In this session, weâ??ll discuss escrow accounting procedures from the â??voicesâ?• of the escrow officer, the agency owner, your auditor, ALTA Best Practices, and from the Virginia Code. Iâ??ll be showing you the money!
